

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

TO CELEBRATE TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY TOMORROW NIGHT.

Program Arranged—Reports and Address by Rev. Mr. Doney of Hamline Church.

The Anti-Saloon League of the District of Columbia has arranged to celebrate the twelfth anniversary of its organization tomorrow evening. It has secured for this purpose the auditorium of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, corner of 15th and K streets. Should the event be placed at the services will be held on the spacious lawn, which will be lighted by Chinese lanterns. The subcommittee on decorations, Messrs. Robert L. Dutton and J. S. Fraser, and the subcommittee on refreshments, Mrs. Helmeck, and other ladies of the general committee, will have the grounds in readiness at an early hour for the disposal and convenience of members and friends of the league. The general committee in charge, Attorney A. E. Shoemaker, chairman; James L. Ewin, president of the league; Jesse C. Suter, special financial agent; Edwin S. La Farge, secretary, will serve as committee on reception, and Messrs. Owen P. Keller, first vice president, and Hermon C. Metcalf as committee on music. A complete program will be given last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Helmeck, corner of North Capital and R streets, the details of the anniversary program were fully arranged. The program will be given by the Rev. Mr. Doney of Hamline Church, who, it is said, will bring to his aid in discourse at this function the experience of the Anti-Saloon League in Ohio. President Ewin, it is expected, will give a brief historical sketch of the league and its remarkable growth. The program will be given during the past twelve months, and giving special emphasis to present needs. The parts to be played by the orchestra, and the direction of the choir, will be it is promised, add much to the attractions of the occasion. The management hopes that its efforts to open the way, through the twelfth anniversary of the league, to fuller appreciation by the home-makers of the value of the work this federated body is doing for the homes in Washington, may be generously responded to.

Regarded as an Evolution.
The anti-saloon league movement is regarded by its leading spirits as an evolution. Men and women who saw the effects of the liquor traffic and the resulting drink habit, and who were anxious to bring about better conditions, had, for many years, perceived the futility of any attempt by individuals or by individual societies to cope with the united, organized and profitable liquor traffic, and acknowledged the necessity for united action.

Recognizing this necessity, many attempts had been made to unite the temperance forces before the anti-saloon league was organized. The first of these published utterances of its founder, Mr. A. N. Canfield, but these had all failed because the attempt was made to organize with too many restrictions. The plans were too narrow.

To succeed in so great an undertaking the organization must be broad enough and liberal enough to admit to affiliation, on equal terms, all who oppose the liquor traffic and the drink habit, and who favor the prohibition, by law, of the manufacture, importation, exportation and sale of intoxicating liquors for drinking purposes.

On this broad ground the anti-saloon league platform, "The saloon must go," the Anti-Saloon League of the District of Columbia was organized at the New York Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, then known as "Fletcher" Chapel, the 23rd day of June, 1883, and started on its mission of reform.

Officers Chosen.
The officers elected at the organization were: Mr. Samuel H. Walker, president; Mrs. H. A. Gillenwater, recording secretary; Mr. E. C. Palmer, corresponding secretary, and Mr. T. B. Marche, treasurer.

These, with Mrs. M. E. Platt, then president of the D. C. C., Mr. A. N. Canfield, then grand chief temple of D. C. I. O. G. T., Mr. A. J. Redmond, then president of Father Mathew Total Abstinence Society, Rev. Walter H. Connelley, a leader in advanced thought among the colored citizens of the District of Columbia; Mr. John R. Mahoney, then secretary-treasurer of the National Association of Colored People, and Mr. Samuel Williams constituted the first executive committee.

From this beginning the league has grown to its present proportions in the District of Columbia, and spread into many of the states of the Union.

The District League's first president, Mr. Samuel H. Walker, was in office but a short time when business engagements necessitated his withdrawal from active service in the league, and he was succeeded by Dr. Luther B. Wilson, then elder, now bishop.

Dr. Wilson, who served as president for a number of years, was succeeded by Mr. Ewin, whose administration of the league's affairs covers nearly the entire life of the organization.

GOOD ROADS DISCIPLES
FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF ASSOCIATION AT PORTLAND.

The fifth annual convention of the National Good Roads Association, the first of the gatherings of national importance to meet in Portland this year, began its first session in the Federal hall at the Lewis and Clark exposition grounds in Portland, Ore., yesterday afternoon.

Promptly on the hour President W. H. Moore of the association ascended the speaker's platform and took his place with the important personages in the good roads movement, Oregon's principal officials and Portland's prominent business men surrounding him. Where the opening selection of the administration band had been Col. Moore formally called the organization to order.

This act was hardly accomplished when the proceedings were interrupted by the arrival of D. H. Huxs, first brought in from travel, who had just reached the Lewis and Clark grounds in an automobile from New York, bearing a letter from Melville E. Stone, general manager of the Lewis and Clark exposition.

Wm. D. Wheelwright, for the chamber of commerce, of which he is president, welcomed the visiting delegates and eulogized the great work to be accomplished by them.

The selections were concluded by President G. W. Allen of the board of trade and R. J. Holmes, president of the Manufacturers' Association of the Pacific Northwest.

Review of Association's Work.
President Moore then addressed the convention as its official head. He reviewed the work of the association during the time of his official connection with it and dwelt upon the amount of work accomplished. He pictured the crusade of the good roads train on its pilgrimage across the continent, and told of the good work that had been done in that way. He advocated support of the Brownlow-Lattimer bill now before the national House of Representatives, which will provide a fund of $24,000,000 for the development of good roads, predicting that nothing can arise to curb its ultimate triumph as an industrial necessity.

Mr. Moore was followed by A. S. Mann of Florida, vice president of the association.

Following Mr. Mann's speech Col. R. W. Johnson, secretary of the association, submitted his annual report.

Secretary Richardson's report follows:

The secretary's report reviewed at length the activities of the association since its first meeting in Chicago in November, 1900.

During the past year good roads conventions have been held in twelve western states and forty-six good roads associations have been formed. Reports which have been gathered show that where these campaigns have been carried on great impetus has been given to public road building. In the states visited during the past year, and in the states traversed by the good roads train previously sent out over the continent, the total mileage of public road systems, some $34,000,000 has been raised by bond issues and direct taxation and is being expended in permanent road construction. Several of the states within the past year
